TransEleven Claims Managers Presents Corporate Contribution To The Southwest Transplant Alliance (STA)

TransEleven leadership was present at The Southwest Transplant Alliance's annual "Friends and Family" event at their Dallas headquarters in October to present a corporate contribution. In March, TransEleven announced that the STA was named the company's official charity for 2024. The partnership consists of financial support and organ donor awareness cause marketing on the TransEleven Claims Manager's website.

Southwest Transplant Alliance CEO, Brad Adams receives a check in the amount of $2,000 from TransEleven Claims Managers CEO, Shelle Hobbs.

The contribution was made in honor of TransEleven's founding President and CEO, Brian Hobbs, who as an organ donor, was able to give life to many others through his gift.

About The Southwest Transplant Alliance (STA)

The Southwest Transplant Alliance is a nonprofit organ procurement organization that saves lives through the gifts of organ and tissue donation. Founded in 1974, the STA is one of the largest federally designated, nonprofit organ procurement organizations (OPOs) in the country, coordinating organ transplantation to patients in 10 transplant centers across Texas. For more information about the STA, visit: www.organs.org.
